Congratulations Pinwheel Sponsors!

Congratulations to many of our Pinwheel Sponsors, six of which are in the top 17 on the U.S. News & World Report's 2011-2012 Honor Roll for America's Best Hospitals, seven of which are on the list of eleven 2011-2012 Honor Roll of the Best Children's Hospitals, and nine of which are on the list of the Health Care's 2011 Most Wired List.

2011-2012 Honor Roll for America's Best Hospitals. The annual U.S. News & World Report ranking of the country's elite medical centers is a tool for patients who need medial sophistication most facilities cannot offer. The hospital's "ability to take on and meet the most difficult challenges" is the special quality shared by the hospitals that made it onto the new Best Hospitals rankings (out of nearly 5,000 that were considered), and even more so by the 17 hospitals that made it onto the Honor Roll. Six of the Institute's Pinwheel Sponsors are on that short list!

Congratulations to the following six Pinwheel Sponsors who are in the top 17 of the 2011-2012 Honor Roll for America's Best Hospitals:

- Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore (The John Hopkins Children's Center is a Pinwheel Sponsor);
- Brigham and Women's Hospital, Boston;
- Barnes-Jewish Hospital/Washington University, St. Louis;
- UPMC—University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, Pittsburgh;
- University of Michigan Hospitals and Health Centers, Ann Arbor (University of Michigan Health System is a Pinwheel Sponsor); and
- Vanderbilt University Medical Center, Nashville.

2011-2012 Honor Roll of the Best Children's Hospitals. Of nearly 180 pediatric centers considered, 76 hospitals ranked in one or more of the ten pediatric specialties. The eleven members of the 2011-2012 Honor Roll of the Best Children's Hospitals ranked with high scores in at least four specialties. The Institute is proud to have seven of the eleven as Pinwheel Sponsors:

- Children's Hospital of Boston;
- The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia;
- Cincinnati Children's Medical Center;

- John Hopkins Children's Center, Baltimore;
- Seattle Children's Hospital
- Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh of UPMC; and
- St. Louis Children's Hospital – Washington University.

Health Care's 2011 Most Wired List. The following nine Pinwheel Sponsors are on the Health Care's 2011 Most Wired List, based on a survey published in the July 2011 issue of Hospitals & Health Networks (H&HN). According to H&HN, “the biggest differentiator between the Most Wired organizations and other survey respondents is their ability to present patient documentation as structured data, one of the major criteria required for meaningful use under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA).” Congratulations to the following Pinwheel Sponsors:

- Anne Arundel Medical Center, Annapolis;
- Baptist Health South Florida, Coral Gables;
- Cincinnati Children's Medical Center;
- Detroit Medical Center (Children's Hospital of Michigan is a Pinwheel Sponsor);
- Poudre Valley Health System (Poudre Valley Hospital is a Pinwheel Sponsor);
- University Health Systems of Eastern Carolina, Greenville;
- University of Pittsburgh Medical Center (UPMC) (Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh of UPMC is a Pinwheel Sponsor);
- University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics, Madison; and
- Vanderbilt University Medical Center, Nashville.

Congratulations to all who are honored on these lists and thanks to all our Pinwheel Sponsors for their continued support!
