

Compiled & written by Susan Greig, Partners in Care Family Liaison; BC Children's Hospital, Vancouver, BC
Institute for Family Centred Care International Conference Reference Materials for Unlocking the Secrets of Partnership-the multi-generational patient and family advisory council.

Here is a list of interesting articles that deal with the issue of multi-generational volunteerism.

Energize Inc.

<http://www.energizeinc.com/wisdom/recruit/techniques.html>

<http://www.energizeinc.com/recruit.html>

Volunteer Power.com

Recruiting Generation X-1965-1981

<http://www.volunteerpowers.com/archive/2003/newsletter08.htm>

VolunteerToday.com

Recruiting and Retention Article

<http://www.volunteertoday.com/ARCHIVES2004/July04recruit.html>

Merrill Associates

<http://www.merrillassociates.com/>

Volunteer Management and Generational Differences

<http://www.merrillassociates.net/topic/2002/03/volunteers-the-next-generation/>

Museummarketingtips.com

Volunteer Recruitment-huge variety of articles.

http://www.museummarketingtips.com/links/links\_vol.html

Nursing Society.org

www.nursingsociety.org

http://www.nursingsociety.org/chapters/bp\_0103.pdf

Youthpastor.com

Although focus is on religious volunteering this has great insights into Generation X & what they are looking for when they volunteer.

http://www.youthpastor.com/lessons/index.cfm/Practical-Generation\_X\_and\_Discipleship\_some\_simple\_Dos\_and\_Donts\_148.htm